GUIDELINES FOR EXAMINATION

Examination is an evaluation process where a structured system evaluates formal learning. Equipoise and equanimity go a long way in successfully attempting your test paper.

- Calmly Prepare for your test/exams at home. Catch a good night's sleep and ensure that you eat something nutritious of your choice before coming to school.
- It is important for you to be dressed properly in your complete school uniform.
- Bring your complete pencil box with all needed examination accessories. Borrowing is not allowed.
- Keep your bag/books or any other material outside the Examination Hall.
- Read your entire question paper before starting to attempt it.
- Do not get jittery or upset after a glance of the question paper.
- See the marks allotted to each question and then work and allot time to the questions.
- After completing your paper, please revise thoroughly.
- Underline all important lines/headings.
- Do not talk to a fellow student in the examination hall/centre.
- Number your extra sheets and tie them in the serial order.
- You will not be allowed to leave the examination hall/ centre during the examination hours.

RULES FOR THE LIBRARY

1. The Library opens from Monday to Friday 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. daily. Students of classes IV and above use the recess and their assigned library periods for reading books and magazines and avail of the expensive and up-to-date reference facilities. The Librarian is available all the times to answer queries and cater to the information needs and requirements of the staff and students.
2. Students are expected to behave in responsible manner within the library premises and in vicinity. Anyone guilty of disobedience to the librarian or of disorderly conduct renders himself/herself liable to suspension from the use of the library.
3. The procedure for borrowing the books for home reading is as follows:
 - A student may borrow one book at a time for a period of one week and is solely and entirely responsible for the care and conditions of the book borrowed in his/her name.
 - The name of the borrowers and the title of the book must be duly registered on the book card and the borrower's card respectively and must tally with the date return marked on the date slip before the books can be taken out of the library.
 - The attention of the librarian must be immediately drawn to any book that an intending borrower find damaged, disfigured or mutilated.
 - A book may not be kept beyond a week. If a book is not in demand and there are no pending requests or reservations, it may be re-issued for another week by the same borrower.
 - If a student fails to return the books borrowed by him at the end of the week, a fine of Rs.1/- per day is levied for the time the book is overdue and each day the fine remains unpaid.
 - A student who loses or damages book or magazines will have to replace it or bear the cost of the replacement of the same book. Due fine will be charged until book is replaced
 - All books must be returned two weeks before the beginning of each terminal examination.
 - A borrower who fails to do so will be fined until the book is returned.
 - Reference books and magazines are only for learning in the library and cannot be borrowed.

GOOD PARENTING SKILLS

1. Parents are encouraged to spend quality time with their children everyday.
2. Encourage your child to talk with you. They are full of new experiences to share and stories to tell.
3. Inculcate in your child the reading habit. Encourage your child to read library books and buy them books incentive.
4. Television can be fun and help your child to learn. Television viewing should be planned regularly around program made for children. Watch television along with your child and talk about what you've seen.
5. Share your hobbies with your child.
6. Plan out outdoors activities with your child and their friends.
7. Help your child with homework if required but do not do it for them.
8. Set a family hour at home on a daily basis.
9. Habits developed at home will often help at school for example, following set schedules for home study, recreation; meal times, etc establish consistency.
10. Encourage your child to make a time table for home study, recreation etc. and prepare them for the next day develops organization.
11. Making your child responsible for a few household chores like straightening their room, setting the table, etc. develop the sense of responsibility.

MY GUIDELINES

For My Parents

1. Be firm with me, it makes me feel secure.
2. Don't nag. If you do, I shall have to protect myself by appearing deaf.
3. Help me not to form bad habits for I depend on you to detect them in early stages.
4. Don't make me smaller than I am. It makes me behave stupidly big.
5. Correct me in private and not in public. I'll appreciate it.
6. Don't protect me from consequences; I need to learn the painful way sometimes.
7. Love me but don't spoil me.
8. Don't take too much notice of my small ailments. Sometimes they get me the attention I want.
9. I am quickly growing up. It must be very difficult for you to keep pace with me but please do try.
10. Please do not give me money every day to spend in the school tuck shop because I love the tiffin Mummy makes for me.
11. Don't even suggest that you are perfect or infallible. It gives me great shock when I discover that you are neither.
12. Please keep yourself fit and healthy, I need you.
13. When I needed I am allowed to use the school phone to reach you, please don't give me a mobile phone.
14. Please talk to my teachers politely because they are my second parents.

HOUSE SYSTEM

To instill discipline and enable students to shoulder responsibilities, there is house system such as Thomas house, James house, Philip house and Peter house. Various house activities are conducted which not only provide a platform to the students to express themselves but also motivates them for healthy competition. Every house has a house captain and four prefects to look after the school discipline during its term which is of eight days. The house in-charge deputed the students for various activities like discipline during the morning assembly, discipline during recess and when the school gets over. A member of the staff, assisted by several other teachers, acts as the house warden.
